

Learn with Pictures and Video S4

Getting Around Using British English

7

English	2
Vocabulary	2
Grammar Points	3

English

The baby is walking on the road.

The people are commuting to work in the morning.

The students are taking the bus.

The married couple is driving on the country road.

The passengers are flying on the aeroplane.

Vocabulary

English	Definition	Class
baby	an infant	noun
walk	to move with legs that is not running	verb
road	hard surface for traveling on	noun
people	group of human beings	noun
commute	to travel from one place to another on a regular basis	verb
work	employment, earning money for labor done	verb
student	person who attends a school	noun
take	to use a method of transport (train, bus etc)	verb
bus	a large motor vehicle that carries people	noun
married couple	usually husband and wife	noun
drive	to control movement of a car or truck or bus	verb
country road	road in the countryside; often made of dirt	noun
passenger	person traveling in a vehicle or airplane or boat and is not operating it	noun
fly	to move through the air	noun
aeroplane	machine with wings and an engine which can fly	noun

Vocabulary Sample Sentences

Look at that cute baby in that stroller!

He walked more slowly.

He felt sick driving down the winding road.

There were a lot of people at his house.

How many people are you expecting?

The people are commuting by train.

Her work was challenging, but she enjoyed it very much.

He had to work so he couldn't attend the event.

I'm a student.

I'm a student.

I'd love to take a helicopter ride over the Hudson River.

Let's take the bus to Philadelphia.

We have been a married couple longer than we were single.

Please, drive slowly.

After you leave that highway, you need to use country roads to get to the lake.

I sat in the passenger seat of her sports car.

There are 35 passengers on this airplane.

The eagle is flying and swooping for fish.

The aeroplane is flying in the sky.

Grammar Points

The focus of this lesson is tense comparison in English.

Present tense, Present Progressive tense, and Past tense

In this lesson you'll learn the difference between the different tenses in the English language: present tense, present progressive tense, and past tense.

1. The baby is walking on the road.

Tense	British English
present tense	The baby walks on the road.
present progressive tense	The baby is walking on the road.
past tense	The baby walked on the road.

2. The people are commuting to work in the morning.

Tense	British English
present tense	The people commute to work in the morning.
present progressive tense	The people are commuting to work in the morning.
past tense	The people commuted to work in the morning.

3. The students are taking the bus.

Tense	British English
present tense	The students take the bus.
present progressive tense	The students are taking the bus.
past tense	The students took the bus.

4. The married couple is driving on the country road.

Tense	British English
present tense	The married couple drives on the country road.
present progressive tense	The married couple is driving on the country road.
past tense	The married couple drove on the country road.

5. The passengers are flying on the aeroplane.

EnglishClass101.com

Learn English with FREE Podcasts

Tense	British English
present tense	The passengers fly on the aeroplane.
present progressive tense	The passengers are flying on the aeroplane.
past tense	The passengers flew on the aeroplane.