

All About

Think You Can Answer These 5 Questions About the United States?

6

Grammar Points

2

Grammar Points

---

The 5 Things You Have to Know about English and the USA!

---

Test your knowledge of the United States of America.

This lesson will build your basic knowledge of the United States by quizzing you on five areas of knowledge: geography, pop culture, travel, economics, and myth busting.

1) Geography

---

Question: What is the biggest state?

Answer: Alaska is the biggest state, followed by Texas. It is the state that appears to be part of Canada. It is roughly two and a half times the area of Texas. It has long coastlines and has many active volcanoes.

2) Pop Culture

---

Question: The late Michael Jackson is known to be the King of Pop. Who is the Queen of Pop?

Answer: Madonna is often called the Queen of Pop! She is a famous pop artist who first appeared on the music scene in the 1980s and has had many controversial yet brilliant performances. She has been a trendsetter and continues to perform today.

3) Travel

---

Question: From which country was the Statue of Liberty a gift?

Answer: She was a gift from France in 1886 to celebrate the centennial of the signing of the Declaration of Independence. The location made it perfect for Americans to use her originally as a lighthouse to give guidance to ships.

4) Economics

---

Question: Which country is the United States' main export partner?

Answer: Canada. Mexico and China come in second and third, with Japan in fourth.

5) Myth Busting

---

Question: What's the official language of the United States?

Answer: There's no official language in the USA. The native language is English, but it is not the official language. The second most common language is Spanish.